

Caradent Oral Care

Specializing in Manufacturing and R&D

Easy / Efficient / Sanitary

IB302

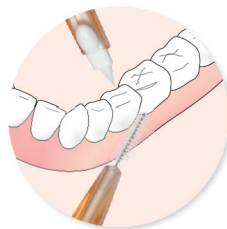

IB305

- Its L shape design combined with its long handle makes it easy to reach and clean the back teeth, helping to prevent gum disease.
- The extra soft brush gives comfort when cleaning the teeth and massages the gums.
- Each brush comes with a cover to keep it hygienic when not in use.

- Patented item
- A uniquely designed interdental brush with the ability to be used at different angles to make cleaning easier.
- With a replaceable brush head making it more economical and environmentally friendly.
- Complete with 5 brush heads and a smart travel case. Ideal for travelling.

IB304

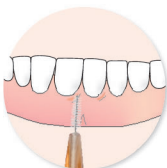

IB306

- The push up brush is used for cleaning between the teeth, to stimulate gums and effectively remove plaques.
- The push down dental pick is used to pick away annoying food particles between the teeth.

• When not in use, push back in place for hygiene and safety.

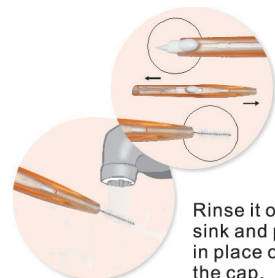

How to use

To remove unwanted objects from between the teeth, slowly insert the interdental brush in

Gently brush between all your teeth several times to remove the food and plaque and massage gums.

Rinse it off in the sink and push back in place on cover the cap.